

Fishing

The Nolichucky River flows through the park and provides fishing opportunities for a variety of fresh water species. Small mouth bass and catfish are popular catches. Bank fishing and wade fishing are popular. Kayaks and canoes can be launched to the Nolichucky River from various points within the park. For larger boats and ease of launching, a boat ramp is available during park hours and is located at the south end of the park near the mouth of the Big Limestone Creek. Bait, tackle, snacks and state fishing licenses are for sale at nearby off-park locations.

Hiking

Approximately 2.5 miles of trails range from easy to moderate, providing beautiful views and ample opportunities for wildlife and wildflower viewing.

Swimming

The swimming pool is open from Memorial Day to Labor Day. Call for dates in late summer as hours are based on availability of lifeguards.

Davy Crockett Birthplace State Park

is located at the confluence of the Nolichucky River and Limestone Creek in Greene County, Tennessee. This 105-acre park honors one of our nations' most famous individuals. There is a museum dedicated to Crockett and a replica cabin of the type in which David Crockett would have lived during the late 18th century. Located nearby is a monument to Crockett containing native stones donated from each of the 50 states. Though small, the park provides a wonderful diversity of natural settings ranging from forested limestone bluffs to meadows and tree-lined streams, all providing exceptional bird and wildlife viewing opportunities.

Planned Programs

The Crockett Days Celebration, held in August, celebrates the pioneer lifestyle and features living history exhibitions and re-enactors in period dress from the late 18th century. A seasonal interpretive ranger provides programs during the summer season. Programs range from nature activities to historical and cultural interpretative programs.

Museum

The Davy Crockett Birthplace Museum contains items common to life on the eastern frontier, as well as portraits and documents relating to Davy Crockett. A short film provides information about Crockett's life. The museum is open seven days a week from 8 A.M. - 4:30 P.M., closed from 12 p.m. - 1 p.m. Weekend hours vary with the season.

Historical significance

Born in 1786, David Crockett epitomizes the strength and character vital to our nation's westward expansion during the pioneer era. With virtually no formal education, he rose from the depths of poverty to national fame and a seat in the United States Congress. His fame and popularity during his life was celebrated in books and plays. His death at the Alamo in 1836 marked the beginning of his legend. Davy Crockett Birthplace State Park is dedicated to the memory of this exceptional figure in our nation's history.

Camping

The park has 88 sites consisting of 54 full hook-up sites with water, sewer and 50 amp electrical service; 17 sites with water and 30 amps electrical hook-ups and 17 tent sites. Campfires are permitted only in designated fire rings or in above ground fire stands equipped with screens and covers. The campground is located near the scenic Nolichucky River. A playground and swimming pool are also located nearby. All sites can be reserved online.
