These are not improved trails. Swimming and wading are at your own risk. A 282-acre day-use park located nine miles north of Cookeville. While here you can enjoy hiking, bicycling, bird watching, rock climbing, birding, and wildflower observation. A destination for hiking and birding and wildflower observation.

SOUTHEASTERN STATE PARK
3835 Longlawn Road, Franklin, TN 37064 • 615-504-4121
This 144-acre, day-use area natural resource is one of the most prominent geological features of Cattails. Dunbar Cave has been used by man for thousands of years and contains prehistoric cave art dating back 10,000 years. The state of Tennessee has made it a state natural area. Dunbar Cave is also of scientific significance as a natural cave and an archaeological site. The 144-acre cave is known for its well-preserved natural cave features and its archaeological significance. The cave has been the site of many archaeological excavations and is now a popular hiking and birdwatching area.

FLOOD CREEK FALLS STATE PARK
2099 Village Campground Road, Spencerville, TN 38588 • 901-234-5800
Fall Creek Falls is one of the largest parks in the state park system and consists of multiple separate areas. The park is located on the banks of the Hiwassee River and offers a variety of activities including hiking, fishing, picnicking, and wildlife viewing. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. This 353-acre park on the shores of TVA’s Chickamauga Reservoir was named for the famous educator Booker Taliaferro Washington and is a popular destination for recreational boaters. Wakeboarders and water skiers are not allowed on the lake. A day-use park named for former President Andrew Johnson, who also served as the 13th U.S. President. The park features hiking, picnicking, and wildlife viewing opportunities. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses.}

INDIAN MOUNTAIN STATE PARK
4605 Pickett Park Hwy., Jamestown, TN 38556 • 877-260-0010
This 1,445-acre park is located on the shores of Pickwick Lake. The 1,445-acre park is located on the shores of Pickwick Lake. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses.

LITTLE PIGEON FORK STATE PARK
2107 River Road, Gatlinburg, TN 37738 • 865-436-6220
A day-use park located in the Cumberland Mountains, this 45-acre park is located on the shores of the Little Pigeon River. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses. The park includes a group camp that accommodates up to 120 guests and 18 screened-in bunkhouses.