CAMPING

TENNESSEE

State Parks

Ready to spend a night under the stars? Reservations can easily be made online at reserve.tnstateparks.com. There you'll also find more information on each campsite and can filter for the campsite that fits your needs. As always, you can also call the park to reserve. With reservations up to one year in advance, you can rest easy knowing your favorite campsite is waiting for you. So start exploring and plan your trip today!

Firewood
To help protect our trees from invasive pests, all campfires must be made with certified heat-treated wood or downed wood collected inside the park. Most parks sell firewood, or it may be purchased from nearby local vendors.

Pets
All campgrounds are pet-friendly. However, pets must be on a leash and under control at all times. For the safety of your pet, and the safety of park wildlife, pets may not be left unattended.

With camping at 39 different Tennessee State Parks, there's a unique campsite waiting for you at reserve.tnstateparks.com.
